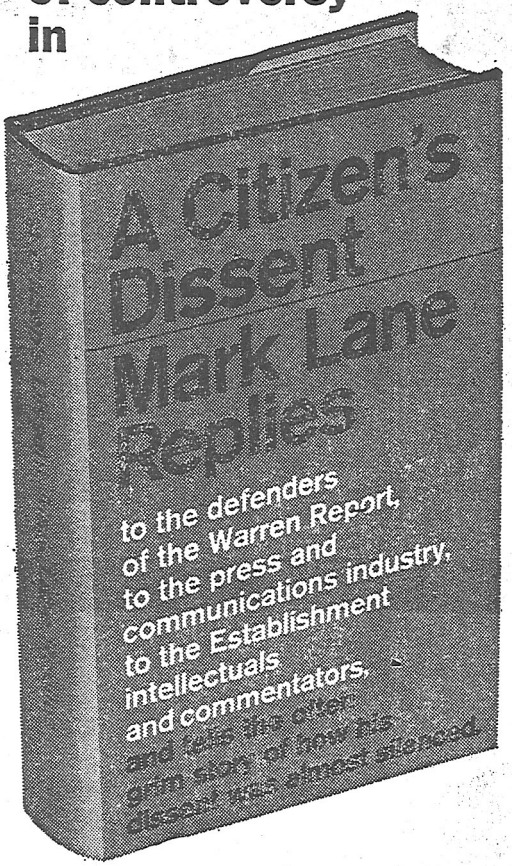
MARK LANE

The author of the #1 best seller, Rush to Judgment, stirs up a new storm of controversy in



A Citizen's Dissent
Mark Lane Replies
to the defenders of the Warren Report, to the press and communications industry, to the Establishment intellectuals and commentators, and tells the other side of how his dissent was almost silenced

The man who convinced the majority of Americans that the Warren Commission could be wrong now replies to "those who would negate reasonable disagreement." In a clear warning that "Big Brother" is becoming a reality, Lane reveals how the U.S. government harassed him—and anyone else—who tried to investigate the Kennedy assassination; how our "free" communications industry deliberately suppressed information; how he—virtually alone—stood up to the Establishment and broke through its "curtain of silence." He also takes dead aim at pro-Commission books, tells of the difficulties in finding a publisher for his explosive Rush to Judgment, and presents new evidence regarding the assassination which has recently been uncovered by New Orleans District Attorney, Jim Garrison.
